

THE SATANIC ORIGINS OF RACISM AND
WHITE RACE BLOODLINE

- by “Satanic Orthodoxy” (religious texts collection)

This sort writing only through religious texts, is the best answer against Globalization and “New Age” propaganda of “anti-racist” and other similar “Political Correct” aspects that want conquer and Satanism with them for finishing these Globalization plans, such as a “Pan-Religion” for the global people (one World), because racism and other religion differences separate the humanity each other. But we will prove below that all of these “anti-racist” and human equality with Global Unity aspects are Judeo-Christian in fact (Biblical God Jehova and Christ willing) and not satanic, because Satan and his Fallen Angels (Demons) are responsible for racism in our world, when we see for example that White race came from them as “fruit” of their sexual union with humans, so their White race childe that having the satanic blood (Satan created from fire) is a better race than the other non-White humans that created only from clay like Adam. So, the conclusion is that of all these Satanists (fake as atheists like “Church of Satan” and “Satanic Temple” or real as theistic Satanists) who have today (as satanic traitors) all these “anti-fascist” and “anti-racist” with other “Political Correct” aspects, serving Judeo-Christian God and his religions in fact and not Satan with Satanism, when they are allowing to disappear their satanic White race from multi-cultural race mixing for example with open borders societies as the authorities of some West countries promoting today (so these are not satanic also). That means that all of them are our enemy and we must destroy them without mercy! Let’s we will see now all these religious proofs for all that we said and the real meaning of the word “racism” finally.

The Satanic Origins of Racism

By Rawan AbuShaban

The original sin is often attributed to the first of mankind, but these Abrahamic faiths agree that Satan was the first to transgress against God. According to the Holy Scriptures that compose the doctrines of Christianity and Islam, the Devil was a sinner long before Adam and Eve. According to biblical canon, Satan's heart was corrupted by his ego, and his desire to overtake God in heaven was his fatal sin. Ezekiel 28 offers a recount of Satan's demise through the description of a proud earthly king, who had been Satan's vessel.

“Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor” (Ezekiel, 28:17). These verses heavily imply that Satan became infatuated with his own intelligence and beauty, and assumed that he deserved the glory that befitted God alone.

Satan allowed his angelic privilege to fester into conceit. His arrogance poisoned his mind. “You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created, till unrighteousness was found in you” (Ezekiel, 28:13-19). Biblical descriptions of the Devil position him at war with God, and that his sin was Pride - one of the seven deadly sins. When he was cast down to earth, Satan pronounced God - and man - his immortal enemy. The Qur’anic telling of Satan’s fall is analogous, but entails a clearer description and an earlier telling of his transgression.

According to Islamic tradition, Satan was a djinn who rose to the ranks of the angels due to his righteousness and diligent servitude. As the story goes, God ordered all of the angels, including Satan, to bow before the first man - His newest, perfect creation. Satan refused this command, and transitioned almost instantaneously from God’s favorite to the most damned creation of all time. This sudden transition is immensely crucial in comprehending the gravity of Satan’s crime.

In the Qur’an, Satan says to God, “I am better than him (Adam); You created me from fire, and You created him from clay” (Al-Qur’an, 7:11-12). Interestingly, Islam provides a clear recount of the precise moment Satan turned against God. His deviation is clearly fueled by pride, but his justification is embedded in pride’s sinful derivative: racism.

Fire and mud - the primordial elements that comprise djinn and man can be seen as the precursors to race and ethnicity, and are the grounds upon which Satan defies the Lord.

“I am better than him,” the unembellished exclamation of conceit that cast Satan into the depths of Hell for all of eternity.

The Bible itself condemns racism as a sin and spiritual illness. The New Testament affirms that Christ is in all, and that every individual is unified in God regardless of status, origin, or race.

The Bible condemns hatred of another, stating that “the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes” (1 John, 2:11). This verse dooms the hateful ignorant to walk a path without direction, and reinforces the idea that one is accountable for their hatred of another.

Likewise, the Qur’an is scattered with verses that dissolve racism, condemning racial hierarchies in the practice of Islam. According to the Islamic faith, the presence of diversity on Earth is shown to be evidence of God’s hand in creation.

“Among His proofs are the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the variations in your languages and your colors. In these, there are signs for the knowledgeable” (Al-Qur’an, 30:22).

As stated by this verse, witnessing and experiencing different races, languages, and heritages are meant to strengthen our belief in God. Living together harmoniously in both recognition and acceptance of these differences demonstrates the all-powerfulness of the Divine.

Despite our differences, “mankind is naught but a single nation” (Al-Qur’an, 2:213).

Both Abrahamic in origin, Christianity and Islam preach unity in faith, and finding brotherhood by transcending superficial traits. With kindness, humility, and community at the core of these faiths, Satan’s rebellion and prideful nature seem to be the very antithesis of their teachings.

If racism is inherently satanic, what does this say about contemporary acts of racism performed by God’s self-proclaimed devotees?

If the original sin was an act of Satan’s pride, what does this say about evangelical theists who claim to live by the holy texts of the Bible and Qur’an, who in the midst of their worship discriminate against others on the basis of their origin?

Is racism not pride, the native quality of Satan, the ultimate nemesis, the enemy of God?

Take a moment to refresh your memory with what these doctrines teach regarding Satan, as a result of his prideful arrogance:

“I saw Satan fall like lightning from Heaven” (Luke, 10:18).

“Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the Devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world” (1 Peter, 5:8-9).

“Verily Satan is an enemy to you: so treat him as an enemy. He only invites his adherents, that they may become Companions of the Blazing Fire” (Al-Qur’an, 35: 6).

The most despised entity in the history of the world kicked off his career by conceitedly putting himself above others. Considering the state of our country’s current racial climate, we could all learn something by opening our eyes to the hypocrisy embedded in using religious indoctrination to fuel systematic injustice and discrimination, both in government and community politics alike.

The Bible does clearly teach that there are a group of people on earth who are the racial children of the Devil, and the racial children of God.

Early in Genesis, the first book of the Bible, it is revealed that the serpent (the Devil-Revelation 12:19) was to have seed, children - a race. "And I will put enmity between thee (the serpent devil) and the woman (Eve), and between thy (devil's) seed and her (Eve's) seed." (Genesis 3:15) In Genesis 4:25 Eve said that Abel and Seth were her seed. Luke 3:23-38 gives the seed line (genealogy) of Jesus Christ back through Seth to "Adam who was the son of God." Throughout all the genealogies of the Bible never once does it say that Adam was the father of Cain. Quite the contrary, in 1 John 3:12 the scriptures say that Cain was of the devil, that wicked one:

“We must not be like Cain who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother’s righteous”

The sin was not the pear in the tree, but the pair on the ground. The snake in the grass seduced Eve. This is confirmed in the Hebrew manuscript. When God asked Eve what happened she said, “The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.” (Genesis 3:13) The Hebrew word that is translated “beguiled” literally means to seduce. The reason God put “enmity” between the serpent and the woman was to end their illicit affair (Genesis 3:15). The fruit of this sinful act was a child fathered by the Devil, Cain. In Genesis 4:1 Adam also had a sexual relation with Eve and Genesis 4:2 says that she bore 2 children (2 seeds), Cain (the seed of the serpent) and Abel (the seed of the woman). True to his genealogy Cain killed Abel (Genesis 4:8)! “And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.” (Genesis 4:25) Seth (the son of Adam) becomes the seed of the woman replacing dead Abel.

The union between the Devil and the woman was the sin of mongrelization, race mixing, and the fruit of that sin was a mongrel devil named Cain. It should be further noted that Cain had children (Genesis 4:17-22), and they were later known as the Canaanites, the children of the devil. As these Canaanite-devils multiplied they filled the land of Palestine with all kinds of evil. A brief outline of their sexual practices is given in Leviticus 18. This is why God ordered the Israelites to kill all the Canaanites and drive them out of Palestine. (Numbers 33:51-53, Deuteronomy 7:1-6) God said, “But of the cities of these people (Canaanites) which the Lord thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth.” (Deuteronomy 20:16)

“The children of Cain were the first to built cities belted with walls to steal the land of other people and to defend themselves against the mercy of drowning children. These are invented by the masters and established a hellish society despotism and slavery. To devour calmly human smooth that fell below the arrows Nimrod. And since the dawn of the world to this day, the children of Cain still kill the children of Abel. But divine vengeance seeks to turn the killers and their marks on the forehead” (Eliphas Levi, The Bible of Liberty, pp. 31-32, Tetraktys Editions)

Firstly, let's remember that this bloodline descended from a figure who equates with the Biblical Cain. In certain rabbinic lore, we come across the very interesting notion that Cain was not the son of Adam, but of Samael. It was thought that when Samael appeared to Eve as a serpent, he seduced her. The fruit of that union was Cain. Now Samael was a fallen angel, essentially the Judaic Lucifer. An alternate version of the Cain saga, equally Luciferian in its connotations, says that he was the son of Adam's first wife, Lilith. She had been the consort of God before coming to Earth as a fallen angel. The full details of her story are probably too well-known to bear repeating here, but it's interesting that of the two alternate traditions concerning Cain's parentage, both involve the Luciferian Nephilim bloodline.

Another possible genesis of the idea of a Luciferian bloodline may have come from the Elohim, who in the Bible say: “Let us make man in our image.” Elohim is generally thought to be a plural of God, or to be “the gods.” But it is also widely believed to denote the Nephilim, the fallen angels known as the Watchers in The Book of Enoch. It is believed that the word “Elohim” comes from the much more ancient Babylonian word “Ellu”, which means “Shining Ones.” This phrase has a distinctively Luciferian connotation, because the name “Lucifer” literally means “light bearer.”

And the descendants of Cain, who were the deified kings of Sumeria, bore the title of “Ari”, a term which also meant “Shining Ones.” The Sumerian pictogram for “Ari” is an inverted pentagram, a symbol long associated with Lucifer. And the phrase “Shining Ones” would be a very apt description for the descendants of Enoch’s fallen angels, who were said to have hair white as snow, pale eyes, and pale skin which seemed literally to glow and fill the room with light.

The Sumerian Ari are almost always depicted as wearing crowns bearing horns, and some of their descendants were said actually to have had horns.

Genesis 6:1–6

Now it came about, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God (bene Elohim) saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose.

Then the Lord said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God (bene Elohim) came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown. Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Number 13: 30–33

Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, “We should by all means go up and take possession of it, for we will surely overcome it.” But the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against the people, for they are too strong for us.” So they gave out to the sons of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone, in spying it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great size. There also we saw the Nephilim (the sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and we became like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight”

Satan and/or his fallen angels bred with human women and had offspring that were called Nephilim. According to the Book of Genesis, Enoch was a son of Cainan, and father of Irad. After Cain arrived in the Land of Nod, to which he was evicted by the Lord as his punishment for murdering his brother Abel, his wife became pregnant and bore Cain's first child, whom he named Enoch.

FRAGMENT OF THE BOOK OF NOAH (CVI-CVII.)

CHAPTER CVI.

1. And after some days my son Methuselah took a wife for his son Lamech, and she became pregnant by him and bore a son. 2. And his body was white as snow and red as the blooming of a rose, and the hair of his head †and his long locks were white as wool, and his eyes beautiful†. And when he opened his eyes, he lighted up the whole house like the sun, and the whole house was very bright. 3. And thereupon he arose in the hands of the midwife, opened his mouth, and †conversed with† the Lord of righteousness. 4. And his father Lamech was afraid of him and fled, and came to his father Methuselah. 5. And he said unto him: 'I have begotten a strange son, diverse from and unlike man, and resembling the sons of the God of heaven; and his nature is different and he is not like us, and his eyes are as the rays of the sun, and his countenance is glorious. 6. And it seems to me that he is not sprung from me but from the angels, and I fear that in his days a wonder may be wrought on the earth. 7. And now, my father, I am here to petition thee and implore thee that thou mayest go to Enoch, our father, and learn from him the truth, for his dwelling-place is amongst the angels.' 8. And when Methuselah heard the words of his son, he came to me to the ends of the earth; for he had heard that I was there, and he cried aloud, and I heard his voice and I came to him. And I said unto him: 'Behold, here am I, my son, wherefore hast thou come to me?' 9. And he answered and said: 'Because of a great cause of anxiety have I come to thee, and because of a disturbing vision have I approached. 10. And now, my father, hear me: unto Lamech my son there hath been born a son, the like of whom there is none, and his nature is not like man's nature, and the colour of his body is whiter than snow and redder than the bloom of a rose, and the hair of his head is whiter than white wool, and his eyes are like the rays of the sun, and he opened his eyes and thereupon lighted up the whole house. 11. And he arose in the hands of the midwife, and opened his mouth and blessed the Lord of heaven. 12. And his father Lamech became afraid and fled to me, and did not believe that he was sprung from him, but that he was in the likeness of the angels of heaven; and behold I have come to thee that thou mayest make known to me the truth.' 13. And I, Enoch, answered and said unto him: 'The Lord will do a new thing on the earth, and this I have already seen in a vision, and make known to thee that in the generation of my father Jared some of the angels of heaven transgressed the word of the Lord. 14. And behold they commit sin and transgress the law, and have united themselves with women and commit sin with them, and have married some of them, and have begot children by them. 17. And they shall produce on the earth giants not according to the spirit, but according to the flesh, and there shall be a great punishment on the earth, and the earth shall be cleansed from all impurity. 15. Yea, there shall come a great destruction over the whole earth, and there shall be a deluge and a great destruction for one year. 16. And this son who has been born unto you shall be left on the earth, and his three children shall be saved with him: when all mankind that are on the earth shall die [he and his sons shall be saved]. 18. And now make known to thy son Lamech that he who has been born is in truth his son, and call his name Noah; for he shall be left to you, and he and his sons shall be saved from the destruction, which shall come upon the earth on account of all the sin and all the unrighteousness, which shall be consummated on the earth in his days. 19. And after that there shall be still more unrighteousness than that which was first consummated on the earth; for I know the mysteries of the holy ones; for He, the Lord, has showed me and informed me, and I have read (them) in the heavenly tablets.

p. 151

– The word “racism” as race hate or hate speech does not exist! This word truly means the love of our race and our nation, but also the physical fact that some races are more high class than others (in civilization, arts, technology, spirituality e.t.c.) and not the race hate (that is racialism such as jewish race hate against all non jewish people as their Talmud says). So the use of this word today is the same communist propaganda from Globalization (New World Order) and New Age Movement for the same conquering reasons against us (our nation and race) and race hate against all humans (destruction of their races by mixing together). Also, the equality of all humans without race differences is a christian value: “There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3,28).

New Testament, Acts 17: 26 From one blood he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, 27 so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us.

Old Testament, Leviticus 19: 33 When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien.

34 The alien who resides with you shall be to you as the citizen among you; you shall love the alien as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

New Testament, Matthew 25: 31 ‘When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. 32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, 33 and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. 34 Then the king will say to those at his right hand, “Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; 35 for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, 36 I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.” 37 Then the righteous will answer him, “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? 38 And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? 39 And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?” 40 And the king will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” 41 Then he will say to those at his left hand, “You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; 42 for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.” 44 Then they also will answer, “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?” 45 Then he will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.” 46 And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.’

New Testament, Romans 11: 13 Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry 14 in order to make my own people jealous, and thus save some of them. 15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead! 16 If the part of the dough offered as first fruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; and if the root is holy, then the branches also are holy.

17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the rich root of the olive tree, 18 do not vaunt yourselves over the branches. If you do vaunt yourselves, remember that it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you. 19 You will say, ‘Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.’ 20 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.

This serpent, SATAN, is not the enemy of Man, but He who made Gods of our race, knowing Good and Evil; He bade 'Know Thyself!' and taught Initiation.
